ILLEGAL DETENTION OF ANDARGATCHEW TSIKE BY YEMEN

Andargatchew Tsige, the secretary of the Ginbot 7 movement (opposition) has been intercepted by Yemeni authorities at Sana'a airport and detained for a reason that has not been made public by them. Andargatchew was on his way to another country.

Andargatchew Tsige had been condemned to death in absentia by a kangaroo court in Addis Abeba and his movement declared a terrorist organization. If deported, he will face a serious threat to his life. Yemen has acted illegally by detaining Andargatchew as he has done nothing against Yemen and was not even trying to enter the country.

SOCEPP strongly condemns the Yemeni authorities for a possible conspiracy with the repressive regime in Addis Abeba and for the illegal detaining of Andargatchew. SOCEPP calls on Ethiopians in the Diaspora to mobilize fast and wide for his immediate release.
